Allowable Subject Matter

Art Unit: 3694

5. Claims 189-198, 200-203, 205-212, 214-217, 220, 221, 224-233, 243 and 245-247 are allowed.

6. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: The closest prior art is Ausubel (US5905975). Ausubel teaches a computer-mediated method of conducting an auction of an interest-bearing financial instrument over the internet. However, the prior art date for Ausubel is January 2, 1997. Applicants have filed a rule 131 declaration stating that the subject matter disclosed and claimed in their patent before January 2, 1997.

7. The next closest prior art is Fisher et al. (US 6,243, 691), Liederman (1996), and Zandi (US 5,966,699). Though Fisher teaches a multi-person multi-location Internet auction. Liederman teaches using auction software over the World Wide Web. Zandi teaches conducting an electronic loan application auction over a computer network. However, Fisher, Liederman and Zandi or any combination thereof fail to teach:

- Displaying the official auction time including time remaining.
- Auction of interest-bearing financial instrument.
- Requiring auction software on each computer.
- Wherein a bid improvement is made by submitting a lower bid where the lowest bid is the best bid.
- Modification of bids without submitting them.
- Displaying the rank over of bids.

- Bidder inputs an interest rate and price combination.
 - Bidder inputs a maturity date.
8. Applicants have overcome previously made 35 USC 112 1st paragraph rejections by pointing out where those portions were fully supported by the specification.
9. It appears that the instant invention is beyond the skill of one of ordinary skill in the art. Accordingly the invention would NOT have been obvious because one of ordinary skill could not have been expected to achieve it, NOR would they have been able to predict the results, and as such, they would have had no capability of expecting success.
10. Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
